YOU ARE INVITED!!

Come and discover this heaven on Earth

Swiss Incoming Team

Ulrich F. Baur has a proven track record in managing multiple projects internationally. He has high standards and while he understands cost controlling strategies, he ensures simultaneous achievement of the highest level of customer service. He is the experienced mentor, guiding and managing the numerous relationships with vendors and suppliers for Swiss Incoming.

Diane Davidson - As a global traveler for over 30 years in her consultation business, Diane recommends the best destination getaways in the world for relaxation or adventure vacations, corporate and leadership events, sales team celebrations and private executive stress reducing retreats. She works with her clients to create life changing experiences that are remembered for a lifetime.

Vikas Khanduri brings with him an infectious enthusiasm and sound understanding of travel and tourism. His experience in sales and marketing is key in promoting Swiss Incoming as an international travel destination management company. Sales and global expansion are his forte.

Come to Switzerland not to escape life, but for life not to escape you....

Switzerland is officially the second happiest country on the planet, according to the 2016 World Happiness Report that ranks happiness in 158 nations.

Come and get a taste of what makes everyone so happy in Switzerland.

We specialize in offering the most popular, the most offbeat and of course, bespoke travel options across Switzerland.

Go biking or grab a pedalo and pedal around the lake in Zurich; bungee jump as seen in the Bond film Golden Eye; enjoy the summertime cocktail bar - cum-beach on a lakeside jetty and admire the view; see the giant water fountain of Geneva...and much more!!
